CONCORD RECORDS & CASSETTES

JANUARY NEW RELEASES 1983

PICANTE
CJP-200 TANIA MARIA

"COME WITH ME"

"COME WITH ME" is your invitation to a whole new dimension of the dazzling Tania Maria. On her third Concord album, Tania jazzes it up Latin-style, liberally laced with current pop techniques: over-dubbing, electric guitars & keyboards and loads of percussion. All songs are Tania originals excepting the beautiful Gershwin ballad "Embraceable You," performed as a duet with guitarist Eddie Duran. The arrangements are all Tania's with energetic support from Lincoln Goines (electric bass), Jose Neto (electric guitar), John Pena (electric bass), Portinho (drums & percussion) and Steve Thornton (percussion). Other tunes include "Sangria," "Sementes, Graines and Seeds," "Nega," plus three others. Do we have a winner here? Advance orders have already forced us to double our original pressing! AVAILABLE ON CASSETTE

PICANTE
CJP-201 PONCHO SANCHEZ

"SONANDO"

You've heard this mighty percussionist on Cal Tjader's "A Fuego Vivo" (CJP-176), "Heat Wave" (CJ-189), "Gozame! Pero Ya" (CJP-133) and the Grammy winner "La Onda Va Bien" (CJP-113). Now, Poncho Sanchez with his own Latin band, Ramon Banda (timbales, drums), Tony Banda (bass), Luis Conte (bongos, bata', percussion), Gary Foster (saxophone, flute) Jose Perico Hernandez (vocals), Steve Huffsteter (trumpet), Mark Levine (trombone), Dick Mitchell (saxophone, flute), and Charlie Otwell (piano) sets the rhythm on such songs as "A Night In Tunisia,", "The Summer Knows," "Almendra," "Cal's Pals" plus three originals. The title song "Sonando" means "sounding or the active happening of an immediate and continuous sound. Right now." Es verdad — Right On! AVAILABLE ON CASSETTE

CJ-202 THE MARIAN McPARTLAND TRIO

"PERSONAL CHOICE"

"Personal Choice" is exactly what the album title suggests . . . Marian McPartland's choice of her favorite bassist, Steve La Spina, and her favorite drummer, Jake Hanna, who was one of Marian's first trio members in the 50's. Her personal choice of tunes includes works by Antonio Carlos Jobim ("Meditation"), Dave Brubeck ("In Your Own Sweet Way"), Oscar Pettiford ("Tricotism"), Harold Arlen's "A Sleepin' Bee" and "When The Sun Comes Out," the standards "I Hear A Rhapsody," and "I'm Old-Fashioned," plus one original piano solo, "Melancholy Mood." This trio setting highlights her finest performance. Here is recorded proof of Marian's great joy of discovery and invention — the essence of jazz. . . an album that will surely become your Personal Choice!
AVAILABLE ON CASSETTE

CJ-203 THE WARREN VACHE' TRIO

"MIDTOWN JAZZ"

You'll see a big difference in Warren Vache's latest contribution to the Concord label. Here he is leader of his own trio, John Bunch on piano and Phil Flanigan on bass, a group that plays regularly in the New York—New Jersey area. The notable omission of a drummer is rightfully compensated by the impeccable time-keeping of Flanigan's bass and Bunch's two-fisted piano. This is a step forward in the evolution of Vache's playing, displaying more modern voicings in "Tempus Fugit" and the speedy rendition of Thelonious Monk's "Rhythm-A-Ning." Other tunes includes "I Remember April," "We'll Be Together Again," a John Bunch original "It's Love In The Spring," and four others.

CJ-204 THE TAL FARLOW QUARTET

"COOKIN' ON ALL BURNERS"

Guitarist Tal Farlow is hotter than ever in this new quartet release, "Cookin' On All Burners." Together with James Williams (piano), Gary Mazzaroppi (bass) and Vinnie Johnson (drums) these four have set up personal challenges with each other, culminating with the rapid-fire fingering that no one does quite like Tal Farlow. Of special interest is the spirited exchange between this veteran guitarist and Concord's hot contemporary pianist. Tunes include "You'd Be So Nice To Come Home To," "If I Should Lose You," "I've Got The World On A String," "Love Letters," Cole Porter's "Why Shouldn't I" and four more glorious standards. Liner annotator Gordon Raddue aptly paraphrased the old Ellington adage . . . "Tal Farlow is the greatest Tal Farlow that ever lived!"

CJ-205 "CONCORD JAZZ ALL STARS AT THE NORTHSEA JAZZ FESTIVAL, Vol. 2"

If you heard Volume One of this exciting performance in Holland, you'll understand why this encore release was in such demand. A perfect companion to CJ-182 or one that is well able to stand on its own solid grooves, "The Concord Jazz All Stars At The Northsea Jazz Festival, Vol.2" highlights each of the seven members. "Vignette," "Can't We Be Friends" and "In A Mellotone" are ensemble performances. Featured soloists are Al Cohn (tenor sax) on "Emily", Warren Vache' (cornet) on "Out of Nowhere," Cal Collins (guitar) on "Your Red Wagon," Scott Hamilton (tenor sax) on "Once In A While," and the unaccompanied piano of Dave McKenna on "Sweet Lorraine." Ample solo space is allotted for the rhythm section: Bob Maize (bass) and Jake Hanna (drums). Volume 2 completes the performance that 3,000 lucky Europeans heard live in 1981. And now the rest of us have the opportunity to hear this sterling session forever! AVAILABLE ON CASSETTE
